Mr. N. H. Peck, of Needmore, made a trip to McConnellsburg last Friday.

A great display of Easter Novelties at the Irwin Store. See what we have in our windows.

Mr. A. J. Hess and his neighbor W. F. Deavor of Taylor town ship, were in town last week attending to business connected with the settlement of the B. A. Deavor estate.

Try the Irwin Store Easter Candies, the only store in town showing a complete assortment, all to be sold at popular prices.

Our reporter is just awfully sorry the tangle he caused in social circles last Friday and Saturday. The old fellow did not know that so many evenings were to be devoted to functions.

HIDES.—Frank B. Sipes pays the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins sheepskins and tallow.

C. R. Spangler and family removed to their new home in Hancock, Tuesday of this week. Mr Spangler is the senior member of the firm of Spangler and Harris, manufacturers of lumber. At the present time, and for some time to come, Mr. Spangler's oversight of the business in the southern part of the County made it necessary for him to locate near his work; hence his removal to Hancock. We expect to see them back in McConnellsburg next fall, because Mrs. Spangler assured one of our reporters that "when you get that railroad" we will move back to McConnellsburg, and we advised her to secure a house now while securing was good, for that road "sure am comin'".

To Have County Farm Bureau.

The farmers of Huntingdon county have been considering the question of establishing a farm bureau. Meetings have been held, and farm counselors from counties already provided with these institutions have met the farmers and explained the workings of farm bureaus to those who are not familiar with them. More than a dozen counties in the State have accepted the offers of the National, and the State agricultural departments to maintain farm county bureaus. The county must help pay the counselor's salary, and the counselor is then at the command of the farmers of the county to aid them in any manner whatever. The farmers constitute a big business concern as perfectly organized as that of any other concern, and the counselor as at the head of the business, and there is no more hap-hazard business methods practiced as is the case where every farmer pulls for himself. The cost to the county is but a few cents for each farmer, but the returns to each farmer, who takes advantage of the bureau sometimes amounts to many hundreds of dollars. The saving in the purchase of one ton of fertilizer alone amounts to more than the individual's share of cost. But the total benefit is impossible to compute, because every phase of life on the farm, from the kitchen to the marketing of all products including livestock, is affected.

That State Flower.

Several legislatures have tried to adopt a State flower. Governor Tener vetoed the Daisy, and Governor Brumbaugh has just vetoed the Mountain Laurel. But why try to select another State floral emblem until after a local option bill is passed? Have we not two emblems now—Rye, and the Cornflower?

Currants Fifty Years Old.

When Mrs. George W. Reiser was cleaning up her garret in the former Thompson residence on East Lincoln Way, preparatory to making sale last week, she found a bottle of currants that were put up and sealed in 1865—just fifty years ago. To all appearances, the currants are as fresh as on the day they were bottled.

BARGAINS IN OVERCOATS

Now is the time to get a bargain in Men's and Boys' Overcoats. We have sold a nice lot of these goods this year; but we want to close out every one, and we will make it pay you to buy a coat now. We must sell to make room for spring goods; so, don't delay if you want a coat. Also, on some suits, we are going to give some one a bargain. You have known us long enough to know that when we say a thing we mean it.

OVERSHOES AND SHOES

We have a good line of rubbers yet; and at good prices. Don't fail to see our line of shoes, as we can save you money.

HULL & BENDER.

Sell all Roosters.

Dispose of all roosters as soon as you have set all the hens you want to hatch, and do not replace the roosters until about two weeks before next hatching season. The roosters are by no means necessary for egg production, and infertile eggs bring best prices, because it is the fertile egg that spoils first. The feed that the useless roosters would consume during summer and next fall, if saved and sold, would go a long way toward buying new blood. This is the advice of experts who have been making money out of poultry for many years.

On last Saturday, a McConnellsburg team played a Knobsville team at a game of baseball. Score, 9 to 8 in favor of McConnellsburg.
